

CDS - THE CUSTOMS DECLARATION SERVICE

An Introduction to the CHIEF Replacement System

Registration: 09.45 Start: 10.00 Finish: 13:00

Day 1: Exports Day 2: Imports

TOPICS COVERED

- INTRODUCTION: What is CDS and when does it take effect?
- THE CHANGES: What are the changes and how do they relate to the old CHIEF system?
- NEW DATA ELEMENTS: Overview of what's new and who needs to provide the information
- CDS TARIFF COMPLETION RULES: Where and how to access the information
- TYPES OF DECLARATIONS: What are the different declarations available under CDS
- SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS: How does CDS differ from CHIEF
- DATA SETS: Overview of the eight Data Sets and their elements (that replace the SAD Boxes)

- DETAILS OF THE CHANGES: A box-by-box (Data Set) guide to what's changed...
 - DATA SET 1: Declarations, Procedures and Additional Procedures
 - DATA SET 2: Previous Documents, Statements, Documents and References
 - DATA SET 3: Exporters, Importers, Sellers, Buyers etc (replacing the SAD Boxes)
 - DATA SET 4: Delivery Terms (Incoterms), Tax Lines, Additions & Deductions, Valuation
 - DATA SET 5: Countries, Locations, Customs Offices
 - DATA SET 6: Packages, Quantities, Goods Description, Commodity Codes
 - DATA SET 7: Transport Modes, Identification, Containers, Seals
 - DATA SET 8: Quotas, Guarantees, Nature of Transactions, Statistical Value

- SPECIFICS ISSUES UNDER CDS: Looking in detail at the major changes...
 - VALUATION: Looking in detail at the changes and what it means for agents/importers
 - LICENCES: Why LIC99 can no longer be used under CDS and what must be done instead
 - DOCUMENT CODES: Why a positive statement is always required under CDS
 - COMMODITY CODES: Why you need to fully understand the TARIFF

- EXAMPLE DECLARATIONS
 - EXPORTS: Working through a real completed CDS entry
 - IMPORTS: Working through a real completed CDS entry

- WHERE TO GO FOR ADVICE

The course is fully updated to include all the CDS changes and uses CDS Customs Entry Software and screenshots to illustrate the changes in complete detail.

At the end of the one-day training session, delegates will have a good understanding of the new system and what is required to make a CDS declarations to HMRC.

Each delegate will receive a full set of course notes including a detailed glossary of terms.